THEY WANTED WHISKY

And Went Into the Bottle Business to Get It.

REYNOLDS AND DOBBINS TAKEN
And Plead Guilty to Petty Larceny—Slaves From Walkers Engage in Mordial Combat and Get After Each Other in Court—Police News.

Police business was resumed with a rush last night, and today Mayor Gilbert had a couple of interesting victims to handle.

About 10 o'clock last night Special Officer Copesticks noticed Mike Reynolds and Buck Dobbins in Hyman Browarsky's saloon. According to the claim of the officer Mike was busy filling his pockets with empty whisky bottles when first observed. Buck, it is claimed, was doing a similar act. Copesticks followed both men when they left the saloon and proceeded to another, that of Mrs. Higginson in an alley nearby. Here it is said Mike tried to dispose of his plunder, and was succeeding admirably when the officer grabbed him. He was hustled off to jail, and when a reporter saw him was a sorry looking spectacle. Mike claims the officer had his badge pinned on his undershirt, and of course he didn't recognize him as having any authority. Accordingly he resisted and got a whack on the head with the officer's club. In proof he showed the reporter a big gash on his forehead from which the blood was still trickling. Then he broke forth in a tirade against Copesticks. "I'll smash the — with a brick when I get out, mind if I don't. I don't know what I was put in here for anyhow. I'm a Cockeyite and they can send me to — if they want to, but they've got to keep my wife and three children while I'm there." Then he puffed his pipe fiercely and muttered something more about wreaking vengeance upon the officer.

It did not need a glance at cell number two to tell that there was another prisoner behind the bars. He was Dobbins. Officers Badgely and Jennings had captured him in the Diamond shortly after Reynolds was arrested. No bottles could be found on him although ten half pint flasks were taken from Reynolds' pockets. While in the city hall and just before Copesticks reached the door of the jail Reynolds took three of the bottles from his pockets and smashed them over his head inflicting the wound mentioned above. The floor was covered with particles of glass, but the remainder of the bottles were taken from him and put in the marshal's office for safe keeping. Dobbins was the drunker of the two and inadvertently called an officer over to his cell and told him why they were arrested. In response to Dobbins' incoherent "ain't that right Mike?" the enraged Michael responded with, "No; shut up."

This morning both men were before Mayor Gilbert and Browarsky was there to prefer a charge of petty larceny against them. They pleaded guilty to the charge, and were fined $9.00. Mike had something more than a dollar, so he said, but that was not a drop in the bucket and the mayor committed him to the county jail until the fines and costs were paid. Reynolds is a prominent Cockeyite who led the local contingent to Beaver Falls and returned the next day.

A couple of Slavs came to the city yesterday from Walker's and succeeded in having oceans of fun. They were John Costerton and John Polli. From all accounts they tanked up until they were in a fighting humor. One John slapped the other John and then there was war. Just how the engagement proceeded was not learned but late in the afternoon Polli fled a charge of assault and battery against Costerton. The recreant Slav was arrested by Officer Wyman and taken before Squire Rose when he pleaded guilty and was fined $5.00. He paid the amount and departed kicking himself gently. Then he remembered that Polli had not been idle all the time the alleged assault and battery had been going on, and he smiled gleefully in anticipation of causing Polli to pay the same court a few of his hard earned shekels. Accordingly he appeared before Squire Rose again this morning and related his woes. He claimed that Polli had endeavored to make mincemeat of him with a knife but succeeded only in cutting his coat. He fled a charge of cutting with intent to wound and a warrant was issued for Polli's arrest. He will probably be captured this afternoon.

THE MCGREGOR CASE.

No Indictment in the Special Report of the Grand Jury.

NEW LISBON, Oct. 5.—The grand jury handed down a special report today, and no word is said of the McGregor case. The return is as follows:

John Hummel, libel; Maneval Younger, assault and battery; F. E. Pryor, larceny; E. L. Stone, larceny; J. Hudson, assault and battery; Baltz and Charles Zoellers, larceny; Charles Rose, shooting with intent to kill and wound; George Schultz, burglary and larceny; Harvey Clippinger, assault and battery; Leonard Clippinger, pointing firearms; William McGue and Patrick Fox, burglary.

No return was made in the McGregor case although something was expected. A senseless report was going the rounds this morning that the authorities could not find the principal witness, Alma Walters, and no indictment will be returned. It is known here that there is no truth in the statement, and the right persons know where to find the girl when she is needed. It is thought that the prosecution is holding the important testimony for the case when it comes to trial before the court, and nothing will be heard of Alma Walters in the grand jury.

Next week will be a busy one in court as there are many cases to be considered.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—There are people in East Liverpool who are always opposing improvements for the town, and are never happy if they can not be saying mean things of its institution. They can not get what they want in the stores, they never saw the day when the street car line was what it should be, they do not like to go to church because the churches are so small, the streets of the city do not meet their aesthetic tastes, or perhaps the hills are too steep for them to climb. Such people are an abomination in the sight of all good citizens, and should be sat upon when engaged in this chronic kicking.

McKinley Meetings.
The time of Governor McKinley will be so occupied during the campaign that it will be impossible for him to fill all the invitations received by the state committee, but he feels that he should speak in Ohio as often as possible, and arrangements are being made to have him talk from a special train that will travel through some of the closest districts in the state. Whether he will come over the Cleveland & Pittsburgh has not yet been announced, but the time is fixed for the journey as the week beginning Oct. 15.

A Long Hunt.
A stranger came to this city a few days ago to find a friend whom he had not seen for a time and it is said that although he had previously prided himself on his ability as a sleuth he is now willing to give up all such claims. He had his friend's address all right, or at least he thought it was, but in the course of his travels he learned that the family had changed their location just seven times in two years. After a two days' search he found them and is now slowly recovering.

Making Good Headway.
Workmen on the improvements at the Standard pottery and the new building on the Dresden burned district are progressing rapidly and it will not be long before they have completed their work. The good weather has helped all the outdoor workmen although such days as this one are causing them to grumble a little. The paving of Third street will be delayed if the present weather continues, but the contractor hopes to finish before genuine stormy weather comes.

For Sound Money.
Said a resident this afternoon who keeps pace with the times: "I do not believe the democratic state organization will make a great deal by that circular on the silver question. It will not take well in this part of the country and if Raff comes out on that basis he will lose by it."

WILL SELL THEIR ROAD

A New Story of the Johnson Company.

HOW THE MAGNATE FEELS
Toward East Liverpool. He Believes Some People do Their Best to Bleed Him. Suits in Court Form the Cause—Other Places Where the Money Could Be Placed.

There is a story going the rounds these days that the Johnson company are anxious to sell the East Liverpool and Wellsville Street railway.

It has been whispered about on more than one occasion that the Cleveland man of enterprise was not in love with some people in the city, and had long since decided upon making the move provided he could place the property in the hands of some company for the sum it required to create. The stories never seemed to have any reliable foundation, and were passed around as idle gossip. Recently the tale appeared again with the added statement that the company would sell at a sacrifice, if necessary, to dispose of the property. The reasons given were that the investment had not proved what they expected, and the hard times had eaten such a hole into the earnings of more prosperous days that the line had ceased to be counted among the money makers controlled by the great corporation. With this story came another to the effect that Al Johnson did not want to leave this section because the road was not coining money, but for the simple reason that there had been so much trouble in the courts that he was sick and tired of the whole thing, and that he believed some people looked upon him as possessing the cash and they could get some of it by well worded petitions and carefully prepared cases with evidence, whether real or imaginary, to stand by them.

When the News Review heard the story it sought out Superintendent Andrews and asked for a verification or denial. He only smiled when the matter was mentioned, and said that he was not in position to state whether the company would sell at a sacrifice, that was something which never got beyond the confines of the main office, but it was reasonable to suppose that they would part with the investment at what it had cost. Almost any concern would give up its business if it got its price. He did know that the company believed they had not been treated with the proper consideration in this place and Wellsville, but, of course, their complaint was not against all the people, simply certain individuals who had apparently set forth to get as much money as possible out of every little accident in which they happened to be. In support of this he cited an instance where one man had jumped from a car after the accident and danger was over, and the company had to settle with him.

The superintendent also had a number of other cases in which he believed the company was wronged although he has not a word to say against the courts. All these things have caused Johnson to look with anything but favor toward this part of the Ohio valley, and he does not believe that any improvements which he might make would in any way be appreciated. The park and pleasure ground in the East End would have been built last year had it not been for some of the vexatious suits that have troubled the company coming in at that time. They wanted to carry out on a smaller scale the plans that had been so well received in other places, but did not feel like doing it when the fear was that they would have to go through the courts before their object was attained. Although Mr. Andrews did not say so, it was common talk a year ago that the company had arranged to purchase land for this purpose. Improvement in the rolling stock and other arrangements providing for the comfort of passengers would long since have been made if the company were not under the impression that East Liverpool was against them at every turn. It remains to be seen, however, whether the Johnson company with all its shrewdness, and business ability will readily dispose of so valuable a franchise as they have here and in Wellsville.

A Coincidence.
Last evening when Thomas Plunkett and Captain Ogden were talking of old times the former chanced to remember that he had borrowed a book from his old friend long years ago, and remarked that he would return it. Going to his home he found the book, and as his library is well kept he had but to search a short time before discovering that it had come into his possession just 39 years ago yesterday, Oct. 4, 1856. The book is in a good state of preservation.

River Notes.
The Highland Mary is tied up at Parkersburg, and on its last trip this boat proved a good low water craft by going through the dam in only 3 1/2 feet of water and with 100 barrels of salt and a lot of miscellaneous freight on board.

The Ben Hur is tied up at Parkersburg and the John Lowry is taking her place.

The steamer Scotia is laying at Wheeling and new chimneys are being placed on her.

No More General Meetings.
It has been practically decided to have no more general meetings of the board of commerce unless special occasion demands that all members be in attendance. The idea at present is to call meetings of the directors to transact what business comes before the body, and when there is important business a full meeting can be called. In this way the officers can best secure a quorum.

A Bad Cut.
Ellsworth Walters, the well known musician, met with a painful accident this morning. He was at work when one of the cooper's sharp tools he was handling slipped and sliced the thumb and forefinger of his right hand. The leaders in the index finger were severed and the gash was a bad one. Doctor Clark sewed up the cuts, but Mr. Walters will not be able to work for some time.

Gaining Information.
The committee appointed by the board of commerce to secure information on the subject of a cheaper telephone service for the city are still at work and have gained control of a vast amount of knowledge. Whether the move will culminate in anything before spring does not seem probable, but those interested are probing to the bottom of the troublesome question.

He Slept Too Long.
A Liverpool man went to sleep on the train down from Pittsburg last night and there being no one to rouse him from his slumbers he slept peacefully until the train reached Wellsville. There was no means of getting back at that hour, and he had to remain there until this morning when he arrived home in time to dress and go to work.

Reviving a Sensation.
A special from New Lisbon says that the old case of John Eells against John Williams has been revived in a suit in which Eells wants judgment for $425 for money said to have been paid for his release. The case will be remembered as having created a mighty sensation some time ago when Williams was in politics in this county.

Improving the Office.
Aside from the change in the platform at the freight depot which is still requiring the attention of a force of men, changes are being made in the office of Agent Thomas which will be appreciated, and which will make a decided improvement in the appearance of that official's headquarters.

He Has Gone.
A Wellsville young man is missing and he leaves behind a charge in police court and some creditors. A few days ago a charge was preferred against him by a young lady of that place but he got away from the town and this morning the sheriff closed up his place of business.

Not Improving.
Rev. J. N. Swan was in the city today arranging for the preaching of a sermon in the Second Presbyterian church, East End. He called on Adam Hickman near Calcutta yesterday and found that the gentleman's condition is still critical and he will hardly recover.

Leaving Town.
Hyman Browarsky is shipping his goods to Pittsburg today and the Crocker City will soon know him no more. His departure will be especially regretted by the lawyers and squires who have reaped a rich harvest during Hyman's existence here.

Travel Light.
Travel over the Cleveland and Pittsburg at this point today is much lighter than usual, passengers going and coming being few. Baggage Master Smith has no reason to complain, however, as he has plenty to do.

ONE MORE FLINT MILL

A Local Correspondent to a Trade Paper Says So.

GREAT DEPOSIT OF FELDSPAR
Said to Have Been Found Within Easy Distance of the City—A Company in Course of Formation to Make the Material Marketable.

The local correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps tells the following story in the issue of this week:

"It has long since been recognized in local manufacturing circles as an imperative necessity to procure cheaper material for the production of pottery in order to meet the sharp competition inaugurated by foreign manufacturers since the passage of the Wilson bill, the unjustifiable reduction in the tariff having reduced the business to a basis of very lean profits. In devising means for the procurement of cheaper crude material, the local manufacturers have hit upon an admirable and feasible plan. A few months ago an extensive deposit of feldspar was discovered at a point readily accessible to East Liverpool at a low rate of carriage. A company of manufacturers is now in the course of formation here for the purpose of developing the newly discovered territory, and to ship the feldspar to this city in a crude state, to be ground and prepared for the use in a mill to be operated by the new organization. The company has secured an option on the deposit and a test of the material has proven the spar to be of the very best quality. It is likely that the new mill will be located near the East End flint mill, and it is confidently expected that the cost of feldspar will thereby be reduced quite materially to the factories whose owners are in the new deal. This new movement plainly demonstrates that the American manufacturers of earthenware are determined to hold their own in the home market, if enterprise goes for anything."

A reporter talked to a resident, who knows something of the geology of this section, and he gave it as his opinion that the discovery was not only a great thing for the potters, but was a geological wonder since he had never found the slightest evidence of the material in his wanderings among the rocks of the valley or back in the hills. He could not think from his knowledge of the country where the deposit was, and almost laughed at the idea of it being in this immediate vicinity.

A manufacturing potter, a member of one of the most enterprising firms in the city, said last night that he had heard of no other deposit of this material than what a man from the Matamoras vicinity had been offering for sale here a short time ago. He claimed that he had discovered an immense deposit of flint, already calcined, which could be put upon the market at a price that would pay the manufacturers to investigate. His firm placed an order with the stranger, and expect to give the material a thorough test. He had not heard of a company being formed in this city to purchase or lease the deposit. The man from down the river stated that he owned a whole mountain of flint, and could afford to sell it cheap.

Still Leasing Land.
A gentleman from near West Point was in town this morning, and made the statement that the men who have been taking up land under oil leases are still at it. They have secured a lot of territory, and if oil is found there will have a nice investment.

Betting on the Boys.
Since the make up of the club who will play with Pittsburg was made known, a number of bets have been made on the result, and some money is being placed on the home team. The odds, when odds are given, are in favor of the visitors.

A Good Lecture.
The entertainment conducted by Doctor Hamilton in the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening, was well attended, and those present enjoyed the efforts of the gentleman. The program as printed was carried out.

The Annual Meeting.
Several members of the Specialty Glass company were in Pittsburg yesterday attending the annual meeting of the stockholders. The factory is selling a great many goods and have a full force at work.

For Better or For Worse.
Rev. J. M. Huston, D. D., yesterday said the words which bound forever the lives and fortunes of Mr. Theodore Harrison and Miss Emma Bucher, two residents of this city.

The tours of Governor McKinley are nothing short of triumphs.

MR. RAFF will not have votes to give away in Columbiana county.

BRECKENRIDGE has passed from view. Since the day he learned of his defeat in the Ashland district nothing has been heard of the gay old deceiver.

REPUBLICANS who represent their Ohio constituents on congressional tickets are working with might and hope these days. The Buckeye State will have a brainy delegation in the next house.

BUSINESS is good in East Liverpool.
It will continue to be good if Senator Smith decides to place the promised tariff on imported ware when congress meets. That slight protection would act as an equalizing influence when trade gets dull after the first of the year.

THE tin plate industry in this country was created by the McKinley tariff, and when the law was in operation thousands of men were given employment at big wages. When the law was repealed the tin plate plants were closed, and at present nothing is being done. This is one instance of what good the application of Democratic principle does.

NO SPECTACLES.
The New York Tribune deals with the question of Democratic misrepresentation in this way:

"To the men who have not the advantage of Democratic spectacles the great revival of trade is nothing but a partial recovery from the prostration into which prolonged uncertainty about the tariff plunged the people when Democrats began to work for a change. The volume of all transactions through the principle clearing houses of the country is a trifle more than three-quarters of a normal business—75.6 per cent now, against 75.2 in July, 72.7 in June and 74.2 in May.
It is not much of a change so far.
The record of railroad earnings and railroad tonnage tell substantially the same story. Glad as all are to see every indication of better things, it requires political spectacles as yet to perceive gain enough to outweigh the cutting of wages and the destruction of profits. In part because wages are so low and men in business are making so little, prices are so far depressed that neither the farmer nor the manufacturer can prosper, and with only three-quarters of the normal business doing, there is not enough for the hands now employed. But there is hope that the election, by giving assurance that the country will get rid of Democratic tariffs and Democratic agitation, may help to a better condition before another trying winter begins."

The above tells the story as it is known in every manufacturing town in the country.

Forty Men at Work.

The men who are constructing the telephone line are now employed between this city and Smith's Ferry where they have found the work anything but pleasant. The country is rough requiring a great deal of trimming of trees, and the delay has amounted to about a month. Forty men are in the employment of the company, and they are expected down in the city some time next week. It has not yet been announced whether the rate to Pittsburgh will be increased by the metallic circuit.

NEWS FROM LISBON.

The Weekly Grand of the County Court Gives Merry On.

NEW LISBON, Oct. 4.—An action for partition of 10 acres of land in Salem township was instituted today by Mary Thomas, who claims interest in it. The defendants, who are tenants in common with the plaintiff, are M.
V. Isabella and E. A. Dickinson, of this county, Lucinda Tompkins, Branch county, Priscilla Stratton, Branch county, Mich., Josiah Dickinson, Stark county and M. Farrington and Spence Dickinson, of this county.

John James and Mullen Grove were committed to jail today in default of $200 bail, to await trial in this court for an assault made a few nights ago on William R. Lewis, a saloon keeper of this place. They are charged with the intent to rob.

The probate court this morning admitted to probate the will of the late W. E. Lease, of Salem, and qualified as executrix Mrs. Almira E. Lease, no bond being required of her by the will. Messrs. C. F. Lease, Joseph Coburn and Theo Lease were appointed to make the appraisement.
The provisions of the will and her rights under them were explained to the widow who elected to take.

A license was issued today for Sheridan Ketchum to marry Miss Maggie Checkner, a young lady of this place.

LITTLE HOPE THERE.

The Board of Education do Not Feel Equal to the Expense of a Clock.

In speaking of the suggestion made by the NEWS REVIEW regarding the purchase of a clock for the central high school, Secretary J. M. Kelly, of the board of education, said this morning:

"I do not think that it is the feeling of the board to have the expense of a clock added to the cost of the building at present. Much as I would like to see the clock in the tower I do not think it would best just now. If the people decide that they want the clock and the money is raised by popular subscription no one will encourage the movement more than the board. There may be a time in the future when within five or ten years the clock can be added to the building by the process of taxation. Then the taxpayers may be willing to bear the burden. A clock can be placed in the tower then as most as well as now."

Thus it seems that the board look upon a clock much in the light of a luxury, and do not feel justified in adding $1,000 or $1,500 to the price of the building.

A HOSPITAL.

George C. Morton Would Like to See One on the Hill.

George C. Morton would like to see a hospital located at his home place on the hill, and feels confident that no better spot could be chosen.

Mr. Morton has had offers for the place to be used for beer garden and other purposes, but he has always wanted to see a hospital there and has refused to sell it. He believes that the city could take the house with its four acres of ground, and after reserving enough for the hospital proper, could dispose of enough land in lots to pay the expense. The ground is well situated, and contains the only grove of virgin oak left on the hill, and has always been a most desirable residence spot. The house could be converted into a hospital without alteration, and space for 20 patients could easily be obtained. At different times there has been talk of such an institution in the city, it is large enough, while Wellsville and the surrounding country would contribute for its support.
Who will make the first start?

No Deception There.

It is a well known fact that girls of a marriage age or older, especially the latter, do not like to tell how old they really are, but you can find out if you will follow the subjoined rules, allowing the young lady to do the figuring to suit herself: First, tell her to put down the number of the month in which she was born, then to multiply it by two, then add five, multiply by 50, then to add her age, then to subtract 365.
Next have her add 115 and then tell the total amount left. In this grand total the two figures to the right will tell you her age and the other the month of her birth. For example, if the amount is 822, she is 22 years old and was born in August—the eighth month.—Ex.

Powell Tomorrow.

Powell, the wizard who comes to the Grand tomorrow afternoon and evening in so well known in the city that it is not to be wondered that there is a good advance sale of seats.
He has many new mystifying novelties that will be appreciated.

A Matter of Interest.

& Viney on the second page. It will save you dollars if you deal with them.

MAY BREAK THE TRUST

New Billet and Steel Rail Mill at Youngstown.

STRONG COMPETITOR TO THE POOL

Mahoning Valley Iron Manufacturers Are stockholders—The Plant Cost $1,500,000—The Mill to Go on Double Turn in January—An Official Talk.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 5.—Powerful competition to the steel rail trust is coming from the Mahoning valley. On the outskirts of Youngstown a big plant has been quietly erected by the Ohio Steel company at a cost of $1,500,000, and in January next it will be started to operate day and night. The plant will be capable to turn out 1,000 tons of steel rails every day, and by reason of many improvements it is stated that the new mill will turn out the rails at a cost less than that entailed at the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie Steel company.

The new development in the steel rail situation and the danger it threatens to the colossal pool which now virtually controls steel rail production in the United States is all the talk in iron and steel circles. What the committee will do to offset the new competitor is yet problematical, but it seems certain that steel rails will be cheaper in a few months than ever before in America. A strong possibility is a tearing to pieces of the pool and a price war among the giants.
The mills in the Mahoning valley have for years been getting their supply of steel billets from Pittsburgh manufacturers. Last year the Youngstown manufacturers decided to build a billet mill of their own. A company was organized, nearly every plant being a stockholder. Henry Wick was elected president, Joseph G. Butler, vice president, and W. H. Baldwin, secretary. The capital was at first $1,000,000. Subsequently this figure was increased. Several hundred acres of land were purchased outside of Youngstown and a big plant was projected.

The plant has been built. The finishing touches are being put upon it. Its general superintendent, Thomas Mc-Donald, says it will be put into operation the first of the year. But the company is prepared to turn out much more besides the billets that will be required by the Youngstown mills. It will be able to make half of its product steel rails without unduly decreasing the billet output.

An official of the company says: "If the market offers opportunity the Ohio steel company will undoubtedly go to making rails. It would be a foolish thing to leave a $1,500,000 plant idle or partly so if it could sell rails which may be made in this mill just as readily and cheaply as billets. The mill has such a capacity that additions to the finishing or rolling departments may be made without trouble. The start in January will be made on billets, but it will not be long before rails will be shipped from here."

Ecuador Gives Satisfaction.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—A dispatch received at the state department from United States Minister Strobel at Quito, Ecuador, announces the approval by the congress and the executive of the Mahan-Vasquez treaty, providing for the submission to arbitration of the claim against Ecuador of Julio R. Santos, an American citizen. The minister adds that the Ecuadorian government had selected Mr. Matias Romero, the Mexican minister at Washington, as their agent, to exchange ratifications.
This notice marks one of the final steps in the settlement of what was in the past a famous case, one that very nearly involved the United States in war with Ecuador, and one that has run through four administrations.

France's Action Misconstrued.

PORT LOUIS, Island of Mauritius, Oct.
5.—The statement that a blockade of the island of Madagascar had been declared by France was brought here by steamer from Madagascar. The report appears to have been due to a misconstruction of the French measures taken to prevent the landing of arms and ammunition for the Hovas.

Susan B. to Speak in Kansas.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Susan B.
Anthony will leave next Sunday for Kansas where she is to take an active part in the fall campaign there. The Populist party have put into their platform this year a woman's suffrage plank, and Miss Anthony's purpose in visiting the west is to speak in favor of that particular feature.

Secretary Herbert Thoughtful.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Secretary Herbert has been forethoughtful in taking steps for the protection of the lives and property of American residents in China.
Believed now to be endangered by rebellious and unrestrained troops. At his suggestion Admiral Carpenter has arranged with other foreign vessels to protect coast towns.

Two Engineers May Die.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 5.—The boiler furnishing motive power for the piledrivers used in the construction of the Louisville-Jeffersonville bridge exploded and five persons were badly injured. The accident was due to the crown sheet giving way. Two engineers will probably die.

Count Arnaud Given a Pension.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—After years of litigation before the bureau, Assistant Attorney General Reynolds has finally allowed the pension claim of Captain Charles Alfred De Arnaud, a Russian, best known as Count de Arnaud. He claims to have aided General Grant as a spy.

Panama Canal Meeting.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The first general meeting of the new Panama Canal company was held here and 800 persons were present and the proceedings were very noisy. A committee was appointed to examine into the project and effect an organization.

Won't Attack Shanghai.

TOKIO, Oct. 5.—The Italian minister has obtained a pledge from Japan that her forces will not attack Shanghai.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The building formerly occupied by Birch Bros. as a blacksmith shop is the scene of excavation today and it is understood that after a cellar has been dug the structure will be arranged for a place of business.

Einstein Brothers secured judgment in Squire Rose's court this morning against John Stoffel for $206.33 and the costs in the case. The amount was claimed by the plaintiffs for liquor purchased by Stoffel some months ago.

Miss Saltsman, of Market street, has been confined to her home with an attack of lead poisoning. The young lady is a decorator and contracted her illness from the chemicals while at work in one of the potteries. She is now recovering slowly.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs.
Harvey Tissot, of Lincoln avenue, died yesterday afternoon with lung fever and the remains were taken to their former home, Wilmet, on the midnight train for burial. Miss Nellie Simms accompanied them to Wilmet, where the funeral took place today.

The girl's band were pleasantly entertained at the home of one of the members, Miss Pearl Searlight, at her home in East End last night. Enjoiable music was rendered by the band, and during the social hours that followed an oyster supper was indulged in.

Since the case of Hyman Barnett versus Hyman Browarsky resulted in the plaintiff failing to appear, there is a belief among some of those connected with the matter that nothing more will ever come of the action, and that the plaintiff's lawyers will be called upon to pay the costs.

The talk about the extension of the East End road concerns at present the taking in of much more land and it is rumored that the Harvey Martin farm and Neville institute will be included in the corporation. One of the councilmen stated today that no definite action had been taken in the matter.

Work has been pushed on the Phoenix club rooms, and it is expected that they will be ready for occupancy this evening when the annual meeting of the organization will be held.
The rooms have been painted and papered afresh, the new room has been covered with a new carpet, and the club given what looks like a new home.

Lieutenant Supplee, at present in command of Company E, has received an invitation from the Cleveland military men to have the local guard present at the ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the corner stone for a new armory in the Forest City.
Preparations will be made for a number to go from this city on that date, Oct. 18.

The subject of another game between the Standard pottery team and the Knowles' new end club is being agitated again. One of the players when asked about it last night said although both teams seemed anxious to have another game he did not think it would come to anything owing to the season being so far advanced.

Lucy Webb Hayes council, Daughters of Liberty, will initiate two candidates at the meeting tonight.
Action will also be taken on the proposed amendment to the by-laws.
The proposed changes are of vital importance to every member of the order, and there will likely be the largest attendance in months.

About 24 of the Columbian club boys called at the home of Fred Sebring last night and were delightfully entertained in honor of that young man's twenty-sixth birthday. The club presented Mr. Sebring with a fine rocking chair, John McGarry making a neat speech. An elegant banquet was a fitting feature of the occasion.

Some local hunters are out these days scouring the woods and fields in search of squirrels and pheasants.
They say that the game is not as plentiful as several years ago, but they succeed in finding a good day's sport. Pheasants are comparatively plentiful and a good shot can come home with enough to justify his spending the day in search of them.

The acknowledged organ of the Prohibition party in this district, the Canton Outlook, has no use for Coxey, and condemns him in language which might be a little more choice and cover the same meaning, but the Home this week speaks of the "great work" Coxe is doing in diverting voters from the old parties. The Prohibitionists should remember that a house divided against itself cannot stand in politics, any better than in anything else.

The young son of Attorney Brookes and the equally youthful boy of Harry Keiffer caused more than the usual commotion on Thompson hill yesterday afternoon by losing themselves.
The children succeeded in getting away from home, and when they were missed a number of persons set out to find them. Many inquiries were made, but nothing was developed until voices were heard in the wood.
Hastily going to the wood the searchers found the boys spending a pleasant afternoon regardless of the worry they were causing their friends.

There is no medicine so often needed to every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

CHILICOTHE, O., Oct. 5.—Ten thousand people saw Flying Jib go against the world's pacing record.

Andy McDowell, the driver, was cheered when he took the reins. He drove around the loop. The pacer went at a terrific clip. Jib leading the runner to the half, made in 0:59 flat, rounding the turn the pacer kept up his clip to the three-quarter pole and shot under the wire amid the hushed silence of 10,000 people, who eagerly strained forward awaiting Starter Loper's announcement of the time. Some who had caught the pacer, began cheering, knowing that he had beaten the world's record.

Loper said: "You have witnessed something which no audience in the world has ever seen before. You have seen the fastest mile that was ever paced. Flying Jib has beaten Westmont and made the mile in 1:58 1-4." The audience once more broke out into cheers and applauded the pacer as Andy McDowell brought him up in front of the stand.
